Over the next few weeks, the U.S. Department of Education will work with states and districts to begin implementing the new law. The Every Student Succeeds Act reflects many of the priorities of this administration. This section includes publications and resources on Federal laws and policies related to child abuse and neglect, child welfare, and adoption. Visit this page for updates and sign up for news about ESSA. Only the current published volumes of the South Carolina Code of Laws Annotated and any pertinent acts and joint resolutions contain the official version. FamilyFirstAct.Org Provides an overview of the Family First Act, resources on topics related to the legislation, communication tools for promoting the website, and a calendar with upcoming related webinars and conference calls. The law: Advances equity by upholding critical protections for America's disadvantaged and high-need students. The previous version of the law, the No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Act, was enacted in 2002. CAPTA was originally enacted in P.L. 93-247 and was most recently amended on January 7, 2019, by the Victims of Child Abuse Act Reauthorization Act of 2018 (P.L. 115-424). NCLB and Accountability NCLB put in place measures that exposed achievement gaps among traditionally underserved students and their peers and spurred an important national dialogue on education improvement. Have questions? Therefore, to understand and protect your legal rights, you should consult your own private lawyer regarding all legal questions. Please note that the Legislative Council is not able to respond to individual inquiries regarding research or the features, format, or use of this website.
